

New banquet space at the Jackson County Tower Building

By J. Scott Park | jpark4@mlive.com

J. Scott Park | MLive.com

1 / 10

New banquet space at the Jackson County Tower Building

The new banquet space available for events on the second floor of the Jackson County Tower Building in downtown Jackson as seen on Thursday, Oct. 23, 2021. The 7,500-square-foot space has hosted two events so far. BUY IMAGE

J. Scott Park | MLive.com

2 / 10

New banquet space at the Jackson County Tower Building

The old safe in the new banquet space available for events on the second floor of the Jackson County Tower Building in downtown Jackson on Thursday, Oct. 23, 2021. The 7,500-square-foot space has hosted two events so far. BUY IMAGE

J. Scott Park | MLive.com

3 / 10

New banquet space at the Jackson County Tower Building

Ric Scheele, Jackson County's director of fleet and facilities operations, right, and operations supervisor Nikki Raymond stand in the new banquet space available for events on the second floor of the Jackson County Tower Building in downtown Jackson on Thursday, Oct. 23, 2021. The 7,500-square-foot space has hosted two events so far. BUY IMAGE

J. Scott Park | MLive.com

4 / 10

New banquet space at the Jackson County Tower Building

The new banquet space available for events on the second floor of the Jackson County Tower Building in downtown Jackson as seen on Thursday, Oct. 23, 2021. The 7,500-square-foot space has hosted two events so far. BUY IMAGE

J. Scott Park | MLive.com

5 / 10

New banquet space at the Jackson County Tower Building

The ceiling in the new banquet space available for events on the second floor of the Jackson County Tower Building in downtown Jackson on Thursday, Oct. 23, 2021. The 7,500-square-foot space has hosted two events so far. BUY IMAGE

J. Scott Park | MLive.com

6 / 10

New banquet space at the Jackson County Tower Building

Ric Scheele, Jackson County's director of fleet and facilities operations, stands in the new banquet space available for events on the second floor of the Jackson County Tower Building in downtown Jackson on Thursday, Oct. 23, 2021. The 7,500-square-foot space has hosted two events so far. BUY IMAGE

J. Scott Park | MLive.com

7 / 10

New banquet space at the Jackson County Tower Building

Ric Scheele, Jackson County's director of fleet and facilities operations, and operations supervisor Nikki Raymond stand in the new banquet space available for events on the second floor of the Jackson County Tower Building in downtown Jackson on Thursday, Oct. 23, 2021. The 7,500-square-foot space has hosted two events so far. BUY IMAGE

J. Scott Park | MLive.com

8 / 10

New banquet space at the Jackson County Tower Building

The new banquet space available for events on the second floor of the Jackson County Tower Building in downtown Jackson as seen on Thursday, Oct. 23, 2021. The 7,500-square-foot space has hosted two events so far. BUY IMAGE

J. Scott Park | MLive.com

9 / 10

New banquet space at the Jackson County Tower Building

The new banquet space available for events on the second floor of the Jackson County Tower Building in downtown Jackson as seen on Thursday, Oct. 23, 2021. The 7,500-square-foot space has hosted two events so far. BUY IMAGE

J. Scott Park | MLive.com

10 / 10

New banquet space at the Jackson County Tower Building

The new banquet space available for events on the second floor of the Jackson County Tower Building in downtown Jackson as seen on Thursday, Oct. 23, 2021. The 7,500-square-foot space has hosted two events so far. BUY IMAGE